

fischy music

RE AND COLLECTIVE WORSHIP PACK

songs

videos

image movies

backing tracks teacher's notes

signing videos

ONLY £60

'Fischy Music has transformed our collective worship and enhanced our Christian ethos tremendously (and has) enhanced the social and emotional provision for our children' Mandy, Teacher, Lincolnshire

The Fischy Music RE and Collective Worship School Pack includes the following materials:

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

'Bring it all to me' Resource Pack

These songs are based on the emotions expressed in the Psalms and they explore a range of issues and feelings. A special feature of this resource is its 'Image Movies' which use symbols to make the songs accessible to a wider range of children.

'I recommend the 'Bring it all to me' CD Resource Pack to anyone involved in school, Sunday School, Messy Church or all-age worship.'

Claire Benton-Evans,
Youth and Children Officer for the Diocese of Edinburgh

Resource Pack Includes CD, DVD and CD-ROM

- Full length videos of our musicians leading the songs
- Backing Tracks
- Teaching Videos
- Lesson Plans
- Image Movies
- Lyrics
- Sheet Music

Contrastive to experience	Questions to discuss with 7-11s	Possible learning activities	RE / Bible concepts and activities
Feeling scared	What does the storm do to the boy in the story of the boy in the storm? How do you think he felt? What does the storm mean to you? What does the storm mean to you? What does the storm mean to you?	The song uses a storm to describe feelings of fear and worry. It is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life.	Contrastive to experience: The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life.
Feeling angry	What does the storm do to the boy in the story of the boy in the storm? How do you think he felt? What does the storm mean to you? What does the storm mean to you? What does the storm mean to you?	The song uses a storm to describe feelings of anger and frustration. It is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life.	Contrastive to experience: The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life.
Feeling sad	What does the storm do to the boy in the story of the boy in the storm? How do you think he felt? What does the storm mean to you? What does the storm mean to you? What does the storm mean to you?	The song uses a storm to describe feelings of sadness and despair. It is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life.	Contrastive to experience: The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life. The storm is a metaphor for the storm of life.

RE

'BIG, BIG questions' Resource Pack (an REtoday collaboration)

This brand new resource produced by REtoday and Fischy Music features 12 dynamic lesson plans based on Fischy Music songs. Using the songs as an inspiration or a starting point, BIG BIG questions helps get under the surface of key RE themes that help children not just to think about issues, but to feel them as well.

'This is probably the best RE resource in the Galaxy.'

The Fischy Team!
(OK, this resource is so new we don't have any reviews yet)

Resource Pack includes Lyrics,
12 Extended Lesson Plans and a CD

